All Department of Theatre Students are invited to join

A CONVERSATION WITH

BARBARA EDEN

The beloved star of stage and screen will speak about her life and career in an “Inside the Actors Studio” style discussion led by Professor John Staniunas.

Friday, February 14th
12:30 - 1:45 PM
Studio 354

During her long career, Barbara has starred in 25 feature films, five network TV series, 19 top-rated network made-for-television movies and headlined at many of the major hotel resorts and casinos including Lake Tahoe, Atlantic City and Las Vegas. She also was the star attraction at the MGM Grand, Caesar’s Palace and Harrah’s, as well as on concert stages and in legitimate theaters across the country.

People Magazine named Barbara “One of America’s 200 Greatest Pop Icons of the 20th Century.” She has also been honored with a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame; named one of TV Guide’s Most Popular Comedy Stars and has received Lifetime Achievement Awards from the Broadcasters Hall of Fame, The Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, and the TV Land Television Network.

Refreshments will be provided.